Since March 27, 1985 from Albany, New York

KAREN LOUISE WILSON

Age Missing: 22

D.O.B.: February 2, 1963

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Brown

Height: 5'3"

Weight: 114 lbs.

Gender: Female

Race: Caucasian

Case #: 88-445

Identifying Characteristics: She may wear glasses. She was carrying a gray cloth pocketbook at the time of her disappearance and may have also been carrying a blue knapsack over her shoulder.

Clothing/Jewelry: Faded blue Levi's jeans, a light blue short-sleeved pullover Izod golf shirt, a cream-colored women's raincoat, white sneakers, a fourteen-karat gold ring and a blue zircon Seiko watch with a black face.

Circumstances: Karen was last seen leaving The Tanning Hut on Central Avenue in Colonie, New York, on March 27, 1985 around 7:20 p.m. Witnesses told authorities that she was spotted on Fuller Avenue shortly afterwards. She has never been seen again. Authorities believe Wilson probably walked south on Fuller Avenue towards the State University of New York at Albany where she was a student and was abducted near the entrance ramp to Interstate 90 Westbound.
