Missing since February 29, 1968 from Birmingham, UK

MARIA BERNADETTE ALDRIDGE

Age Missing: 17
D.O.B.: Oct 2, 1950
Height: 5'5"
Weight: Medium Build
Hair Color: Light Brown
Eye Color: Brown
Gender: Female
Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: She wears glasses.

Circumstances: Unknown. Maria, a student nurse at Dudley Road Hospital in Birmingham, was last seen sometime between February and June 1968. It was assumed at the time she had just run away from the Old Hulme nurses training centre which is where she lived while working at the hospital, which is now known as City Hospital. Maria lived in Kidderminster with her family before she moved to Birmingham to work. No trace of her has previously been found. The case was reopened in 2009 when a letter from Maria to her mother was discovered, which was dated February 28, 1968. The letter discussed her life in Birmingham and mentioned several friends including "Sue" and "Evelyn", who police believe may also have been cadet nurses. Her case remains unsolved.
