Case #: 18500457A

Circumstances: Wesley had lost his job and, unable to come up with rent, he started staying with friends, bouncing back and forth between their homes. Friends recalled seeing him in Pacific Beach, California on June 12, 2018, but then he seemed to vanish without a trace. He last spoke to family and friends on June 12, 2018, and planned to meet for dinner. He never arrived and all calls to his cell phone went straight to voice mail. His 2001 black Ford Expedition was found abandoned in a rural area of the South Bay, near the U.S./Mexican border. It contained some of his belongings, but there was no sign of Wesley. A $10,000.00 reward has been offered for information leading to his location.
