

MISSING

Discovered on July 23, 1963 in Keene Creek
Reservoir, Ashland, OR

JOHN DOE 1963

Age Missing: 22-26 months

D.O.B.: Unknown

Height: 2'8"

Weight: 25 lbs

Hair Color: Light Brown

Eye Color: Unknown

Gender: Male

Race: Caucasian

Clothing/Jewelry: A red long-sleeve shirt with thin white stripes, gray corduroy pants with an elastic waist and a buckle for size adjustment, and a cloth diaper with blue diaper pins and covered with elastic pants. The clothing was likely purchased at JC Penney. The child also wore ankle socks and white walker shoes known as "Jumping Jacks" that possibly had been purchased at Norris Shoe Store.

Circumstances: Unknown. On July 23, 1963, an unidentified deceased child was recovered from the Keene Creek Reservoir along Highway 66 in the mountains of Ashland, Oregon. His body was wrapped in an aqua blanket and a handmade patchwork quilt with red gingham squares. Two iron assayer's molds were wrapped in the quilt, apparently to weight the body down. His identity remains unknown and his case remains unsolved.
