

MISSING

Missing since October 13, 1970 from
Prince George, British Columbia, Canada

HELEN CLAIRE FROST

Age Missing: 17

Alias/Nickname: Lana Lunn

D.O.B.: October 17, 1952

Height: 5'6"

Weight: 100-125 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Blue

Gender: Female

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: Her right eye opens wider than her left eye. Her hair is fine and straight, and she has a fair complexion.

Clothing/Jewelry: Blue slacks and a 3/4 length navy blue nylon coat with a fur-trimmed hood.

Medical: She had given birth to a daughter in 1970 in Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada.

Circumstances: Unknown. Around 8:00 p.m. on October 13th, 1970, Helen Frost left the apartment she shared with her sister, located on the 1600 block of Queensway Street, for a walk. She never returned and has not been seen since. Frost has had no contact with any of her family members since her disappearance. She left behind her clothes, money, and identification. She was upset, as she had given her baby daughter up for adoption in May 1970 in Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada. Frost was known to hitchhike. Her whereabouts are unknown and her case remains unsolved.
