The Longmont Police Department is offering a $10,000 reward for any information that leads to Ms. Gutierrez-Garcia or the arrest of a suspect in her disappearance. Anyone with information is asked to call the police tip line at 303-774-3700 or email policetipline@longmontcolorado.gov.

Identifying Characteristics: Rita wears long artificial eyelashes and acrylic fingernails shaped in a long and pointed cat-style fashion with army green nail polish. Her tongue is pierced twice and her ears are pierced. She had a previous piercing in her belly button. She has a surgical scar on her left elbow and may have scars on her fingers. She has a chicken pox scar in the middle of her forehead. Her tattoos are as follows: a leopard print on the top of her left foot; a Mudflap Girl on the top of her right foot; a good angel in blue on one shoulder; a bad angel in red on the other shoulder; a puzzle on her back; a large eye surrounded by swirls covering the length of her left forearm; a skull with a pink bow on her left wrist; two red roses with black netting between the stems and leaves on her outer right forearm; a woman removing a face mask on her left thigh, and a tattoo of Marilyn Monroe on one upper arm. One of her lower front teeth is broken. She has a dimple in her chin.

Clothing/Jewelry: She was last seen wearing a 3/4-sleeved black mid-length dress with an olive green light denim jacket and black boots with fringe.

Circumstances: Gutierrez-Garcia was last seen around 2:30 a.m. on March 18th after celebrating Saint Patrick's Day with friends and family. She was walking to a parking lot behind 3's Bar at 333 Main Street in downtown Longmont. It is uncharacteristic for Gutierrez-Garcia, a mother of three, to be out of touch for so long. Foul play is suspected.
