

MISSING

Missing since July 7, 2007 from Yazoo City, MS
JARROD DUKE JOHNSTON

Age Missing: 18

D.O.B.: August 21, 1988

Height: 5'11"

Weight: 155 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Brown

Gender: Male

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: His hair tends to lighten in spots with exposure to sunlight. He is of Native American heritage and has a slight olive complexion. His front tooth is capped, and he has a large birthmark on his abdomen. His facial hair is sparse and he may have a light moustache and chin hair.

Clothing/Jewelry: Blue jeans, a black t-shirt, and a red ball cap. He was carrying a black duffle bag with various articles of similar type clothing, and he was also carrying a guitar (a walnut-colored Ibanez model) in a black cloth/vinyl carrying case. He was wearing a digital wristwatch with a black band, and may interchange with colored wristbands.

Medical: He has allergies (Ragweed, etc.) and is on medication for them.

Circumstances: Unknown. He left his father's home in Kentucky with his grandmother to ride down to Mississippi to visit with friends for a few weeks. His grandmother dropped him off at a male friend's on the 4th of July. After visiting with them for several days, the friend and his parents took Jarrod back to his grandmothers residence in rural Yazoo County. After a disagreement with the grandmother, Jarrod walked off and has not been seen or heard from since. His case remains unsolved.
