

MISSING

Missing since December 17, 1962 from Vineland, NJ

WILLIAM EBENEZER JONES, III

Age Missing: 3
Alias/Nickname: Billy
D.O.B.: March 5, 1959
Height: 3'0"
Weight: 30 lbs
Hair Color: Light Brown
Eye Color: Blue
Gender: Male
Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: He has a giraffe-shaped vaccination scar on the back of his upper left arm.

Clothing/Jewelry: A light blue/gray snowsuit with a navy blue collar and large silver buttons, a matching hat, and tan high-top sneakers with crepe soles and yellow laces.

Circumstances: Unknown. His photo is aged to 55 years. He was last seen in the back yard of his home on Taylor Avenue in Vineland at 1:00 p.m. on December 17, 1962. He was playing with his two-year-old sister and the family dog while his mother watched through the window from inside. She went to check on her other son and when she came back, William's sister was standing in the doorway, holding a plastic flower. She said a man had given it to her and had taken William. He has never been heard from again. His abduction is the oldest unsolved disappearance of a child under five in New Jersey state history.
