Alias/Nickname: Erth

D.O.B.: March 13, 1981

Height: 5'8"

Weight: 130-140 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Brown

Gender: Male

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: His hair is wavy. He has small black Asian symbols, barely visible, tattooed on each of his temples; these tattoos are usually covered by his hair. He has large green maple leaves outlined in black tattooed on each shoulder, and his tongue and ears have previously been peirced. His has five pale-colored cafe au lait marks on his trunk; the marks are between the size of a dime and a baseball.

Clothing/Jewelry: A gray t-shirt, khaki cargo pants or shorts, a wrap sarong, sandals, and a wristwatch with a black band. He may have been carrying a small backpack with tent poles.

Circumstances: Mark was last seen around 4:00 p.m. on November 10, 2005 overlooking Waimea Canyon at the second Kalalauu lookout on Pihea Trail in Kauai, Hawaii. He had hiked extensively in Australia, New Zealand, India, Central America and much of the Western United States, including Yellowstone, Yosemite and the Grand Canyon, and had planned to hike to Kalalau State Park. He was supposed to fly from Kauai to Duluth, Minnesota on November 16th, but never made his flight. He has not been seen since, and his case remains unsolved.
