

MISSING

Missing since October 29, 2006 from Florissant, MO

DAVID DOUGLAS POTTS, II

Age Missing: 21

D.O.B.: October 22, 1985

Height: 6'3"

Weight: 180 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Blue/Hazel

Gender: Male

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: Muscular build. A dog bite scar on his nose, tattoo of a Confederate flag with the words "rise again" on the back of his neck, a tattoo of Chinese symbols that say "drink" on his left forearm, and a tattoo of skull with green eyes on the small of his back. He may shave his head. He is missing his wisdom teeth, has caps on his front teeth, and has previously broken his left femur and collarbone. He wears wire-framed glasses, but did not have them when he vanished.

Clothing/Jewelry: T-shirt, new jeans, black Carhartt hooded jacket with torn pocket, silver watch, silver band on pinky finger, new black and white Vans athletic shoes, and was carrying his wallet with ID and cards.

Circumstances: Unknown. Potts was being pursued by the St. Ann police and the Missouri State Highway Patrol when he crashed his car on the Blanchette Bridge westbound on Interstate 70 in Florissant, Missouri at 2:30 a.m. The police were chasing him because they had noticed his car weaving and suspected he was drunk. Following the accident, Potts exited his vehicle and jumped over the bridge rail onto the catwalk below. He disappeared afterwards and has never been heard from again. His case remains unsolved.
