

MISSING

Missing since April 26, 1996 from Santa Cruz, CA
JOHN WARREN SMITH, JR.

Age Missing: 36

Alias/Nickname: Squeaky

D.O.B.: September 5, 1958

Height: 6'0"

Weight: 165 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Brown

Gender: Male

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: John usually wears jeans and short sleeve t-shirts. He has a tattoo of a sun on his left upper arm and possible one other tattoo located elsewhere. John is very artistic and was known for his drawings, special woodwork, and beautiful carvings (photo of a carving at left). He may have been depressed and possibly suicidal at the time he went missing.

Clothing/Jewelry: Green-brown pullover shirts, white T-shirt, blue jeans, athletic shoes. Gold chain necklace with matching gold bracelet, watch, ring on left hand.

Circumstances: Unknown. Smith's vehicle was found abandoned in a mountain region in Santa Cruz, California located on Highway 9 at mile marker 26.86. All his personal belongings were inside, and there was no sign of Smith. His whereabouts are unknown and his case remains unsolved.

IF YOU HAVE INFORMATION ON THE DISAPPEARANCE OF THIS PERSON, PLEASE CONTACT:

Santa Cruz County Sheriff's Department: 831-454-2242

GINA

For Missing Persons FOUNDation

www.411GINA.org