Missing since September 13, 1993 from Willow Creek, CA

JENNIFER MARIE WILMER

Age Missing: 21

Alias/Nickname: Jade

D.O.B.: March 13, 1972

Height: 5'2"

Weight: 100 lbs

Hair Color: Brown

Eye Color: Blue

Gender: Female

Race: Caucasian

Identifying Characteristics: Wilmer had her hair styled in dreadlocks at the time of her disappearance, which she usually wore piled on top of her head.

Clothing/Jewelry: Blue jeans, black T-shirt.

Circumstances: Unknown. Wilmer was last seen hitchhiking from the Hawkins Bar area of California to Willow Creek for a possible job opportunity at a farm. She never arrived. She left her identification and belongings at home. Wilmer led a counterculture hippie lifestyle, including hanging with Deadheads. Foul play is suspected.

NOTE: Wilmer's mother, Susan, assisted in creating federal legislation aimed at requiring states to report information concerning unidentified bodies into the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database. This procedure provides easier cross-referencing of missing persons and unidentified victims in the US. The legislation, titled Jennifer's Law, was signed into effect in 2000. She also founded FOCUS, a support group for the families of missing children.
